THYME with Marva Brandt

Every season has its beauty.... But don't you just love spring. It comes with those days that don't need the heater or the air conditioner and the windows can be wide open. Love it! My Cherokee Chief Dogwood has been fabulous since Easter, but it is done now. I will submit a couple of pictures. I think we should organize sending in a picture and description of a favorite plant/flower to the newsletter. Not sure at the moment how we would organize that. Maybe just send to Linda and she could decide when to put them in.

May is a special month for me. I was married at the ripe age of 20 at 8:00 P.M. on May 5th, 1951. You know I like numbers and there are a lot of fives in that date. We celebrated our 50th anniversary on 5/5/01 which also fell on a Saturday. Does the day stay the same 50 years later for all dates? I don't know. This year would be our 64th anniversary. Our "first born" will be married on 5/3/15. She likes her date because if you multiply the 5 and 3 you get the 15. So you can see it is a wedding month for both of us. Her fiancé, Tony, is wearing my husband's tuxedo – no alterations.

Our April meeting was a "scramble" with the speakers not showing up and the unusual agenda. I said it took me back to my teaching days. We were like a classroom that has their schedule uprooted – very chatty. When Debra and Susan told me the speakers had not shown up, I said "Good! We have a long meeting." God has a way of adjusting things!

Welcome to our newest member, Dana Benjamin! How did we get so lucky? As I listened to her, I thought that her home alone, is worth the price of a tour ticket. Did you get that feeling?

Selling tour tickets is our primary focus this month. I was delighted to hear that Bonnie bought two tickets even though they are traveling on the 30th. I am sure others have done the same thing and I just did not hear about it. This is exactly the kind of support we need.

Ginny had a great idea. The drawing for the quilt will be at the end of the garden tour. She suggested we do it at the Tallman where a glass of wine is within reach and we could relax in the garden. Or... we could do the drawing at Debra's with the same format.... Oh, that's right, I haven't asked Debra! Anyway I like the "gathering to celebrate" idea – yes, I do!

To Linda Waterstraat and Nancy Benkelman.
Once again a wonderful Daffodil Tea. Everything came together and it was a very special event.
WELL DONE!

Q: Susan asks Dear Dahlia,
We have a large grey pine. We don't like it but it gives good shade and we don't want to lose it. It looks a little stressed....Should we water it deeply now. Or maybe we should get someone out here to look at it. It is close to our driveway. Can you help?

A: Dear Susan,

What do you mean by looking a little stressed??
Does it have dead limbs (brown needles)? Is the whole crown yellowing? Does it have streams of pitch coming down the sides of the trunk? Are there small (dime to quarter sized) bumps of red pitch on the sides of the trunk?
Signed Dear Dahlia

Dahlia knows the questions to ask: We'll be waiting on needles and boughs until Dahlia gets more information so the question can be answered. Can this tree be saved?

On behalf of the Fort Bragg Garden Club I would like to invite you to attend the Sixtieth Birthday of the Fort Bragg Garden Club to be held at the Recreation Hall at Russian Gulch State Park, off North Highway 1 in Mendocino, on Monday, May 11th, 2015, from 1 to 3 pm. Our speaker will be Kate Frey from Hopland. Kathy Holmes, Co-Pres

Many of you missed a wonderful little field trip. Finch Gardens was a 'delight' complete with chickens and a longhorn bull! It was a cool morning when we arrived and Helen had a little bonfire going as we waited for everyone. Helen has landscaped her property with comfort and tranquility in mind. She has colorfully placed her plants in little vignettes artfully composed with little sitting areas. Of interest was her kitchen herb garden - herbs which Helen uses in her cooking. She has horse-radish which some of us want to try growing. Around the corner her cilantro and parsley was prolific. She also has a greenhouse and a year-round vegetable garden. In her 'spare time' Helen is Director of the Kid's garden at Kelseyville Elementary school.
